

Policy and Development

Millennium EMS Solutions Ltd. (MEMS) offers a complete and diversified range of solutions to assist you to meet your environmental responsibilities. The principals and staff have many years of practical experience. Our expertise includes environmental policy and project development, management, planning, operations, remediation and reclamation.

Our services include:

Regulatory

- Act as liaison between industries, the public and government agencies.
- Provide input and conduct reviews of legislation, regulations, criteria, and Codes of Practice.
- Assist with the design and development of approvals.

Corporate

- Assist in developing corporate policies, guidelines, and best environmental practices.
- Assistance in developing an environmental management framework and information management plan, which encompasses environmental, business and safety policies.
- Provide advice on environmental management practices.

Public

- Provide public facilitation and consultation.
- Provide advice and professional services.